Grampian Hospitals Art Trust Open Exhibition 2019

27 November 2019 - 19 January 2020

The Suttie Arts Space, Aberdeen Royal Infirmary

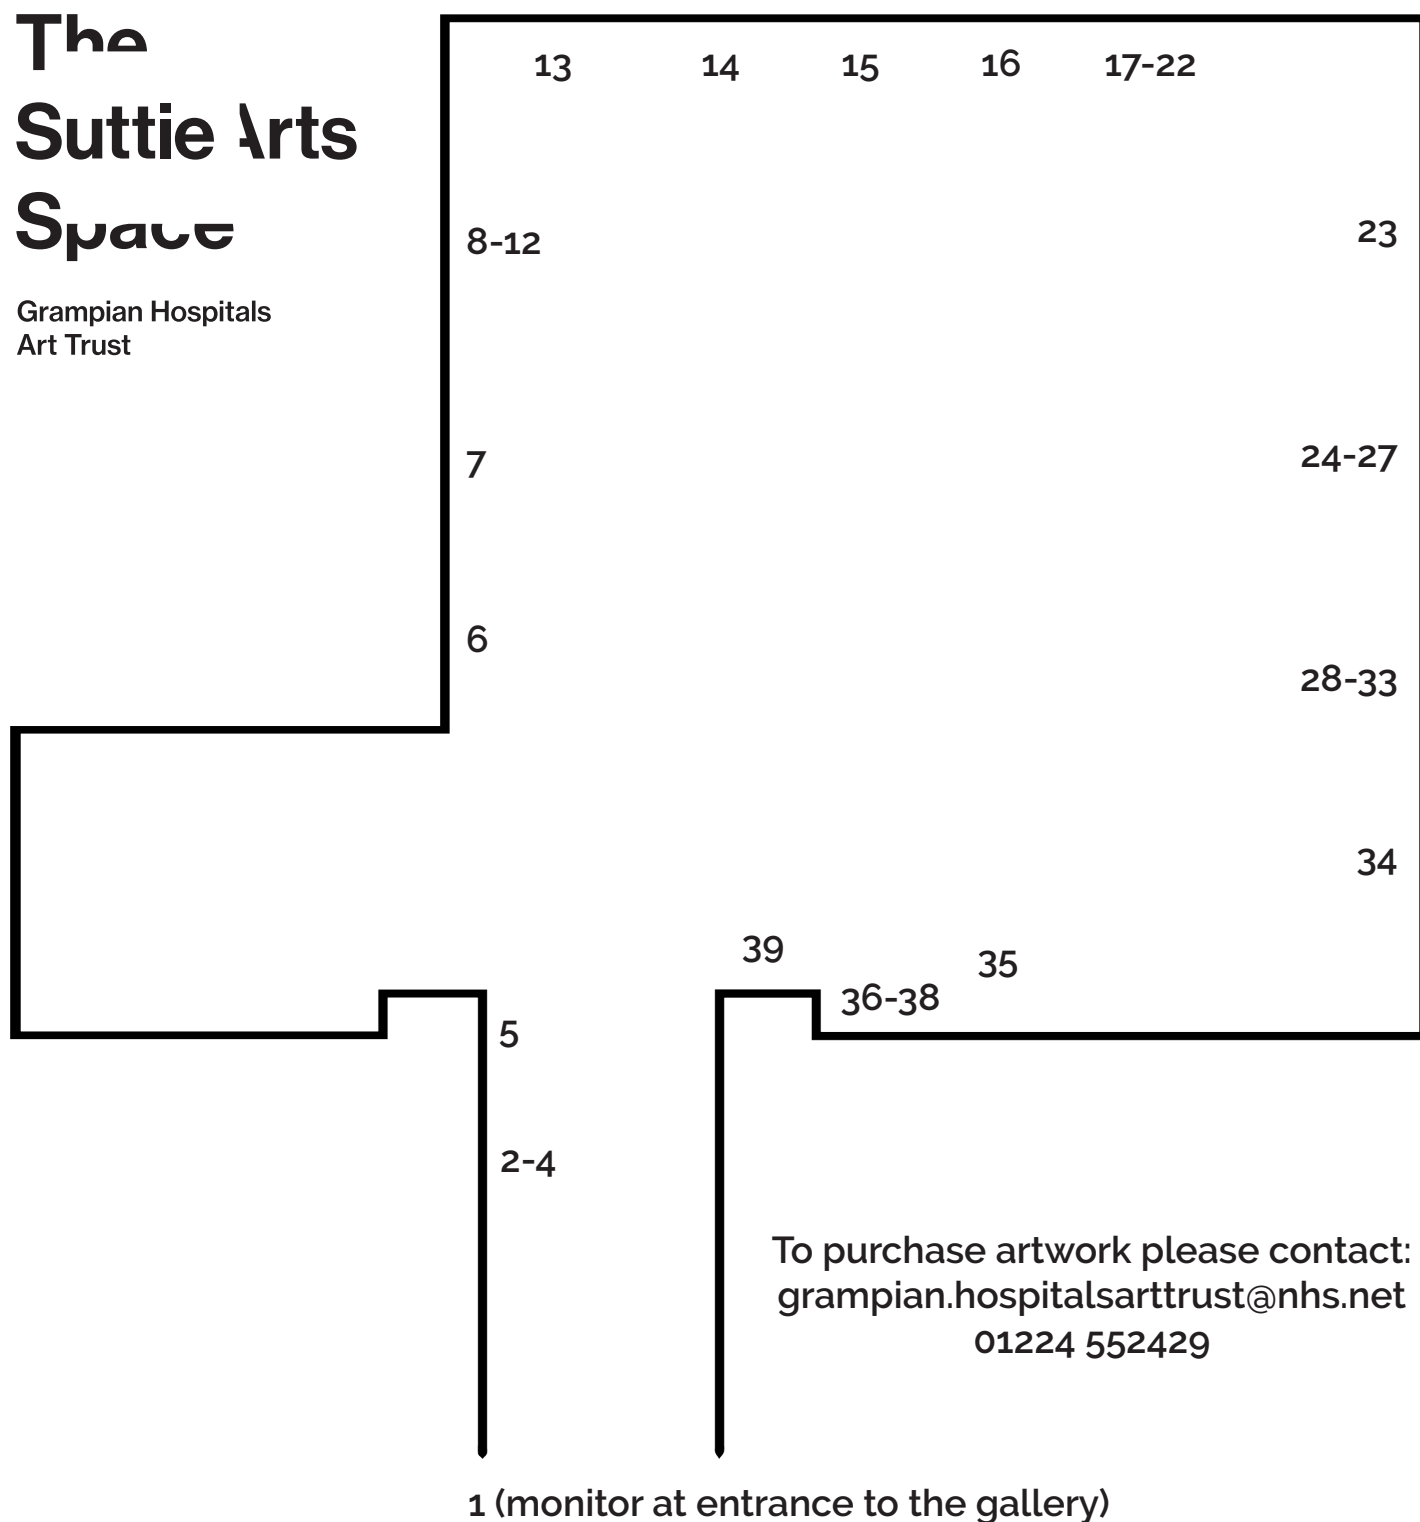

Grampian Hospitals Art Trust (GHAT) has partnered with NHS Grampian Corporate Communications to launch its first Open Exhibition in The Suttie Arts Space. All the work on show has been selected by NHS Grampian Corporate Communications staff members. The exhibition showcases a wide range of artworks created by professional and amateur artists, as well as work by NHS Grampian staff. Works include painting, drawing, sculpture, print, film and photography.

This exhibition is part of the new programme of participatory arts for 2020 in The Suttie Arts Space and across Aberdeen Royal Infirmary. The new programme, Amplify, is run by GHAT and supported by Creative Scotland. Amplify is a focused project of ambitious participatory arts activity based in NHS Grampian hospital sites which will focus on the provision of playful, quality creative programmes of art that enrich each staff, patient and visitor experience.
